

Eleventh
Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 14, 2015

The bulletin article will be brief this week. I am busy packing and sorting, while still trying to do the weddings, funerals, etc. I am finding all sorts of interesting stuff. I am also finding a lot of junk. Oh well, it does present an opportunity to look through things and see what is really needed and what can be given or tossed. It also provides me with an opportunity to deal with things I have been putting off or not getting around to for a long, long time. I found a box of papers from when I left Yankton the first time. I even found the last homily I gave in the parish back in 1998. YECH!!!! I won't be using that one again. So much to do, so little time..... However, the most important thing I have to do in the next two weeks is the most simple: to say "Thank You". --Fr. Larry

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION
